

The diagram shows a light gray rectangular area with rounded corners, representing a printing zone. This area is centered within a larger white rectangle that also has rounded corners. A vertical double-headed arrow on the left side of the gray area indicates its height, and a horizontal double-headed arrow at the bottom indicates its width. The text 'ZONE D'IMPRESSION' and '182 x 117 mm' is printed in the upper right portion of the gray area.
